Martin Luther King Commemoration Art Contest

Rules and Regulations

1. All entries must be submitted to Art Contest, Northwestern University School of Law, Office of Student Services, 375 East Chicago Avenue, Chicago, IL 60611.

2. All entries must be received by 5pm, Friday, December 21, 2012. Entries received after this date will not be considered.

3. Students may submit only one entry. All students must be in grades 3-5, 6-8, or 9-12 at the time the contest closes.

4. Entries must be a horizontal or vertical drawing or painting measuring eight and a half (8-1/2”) by eleven (11”) or eleven (11”) by seventeen (17”). The size should not include a mat or border. Entries must not be framed, under glass, or have a protective covering that is attached to the art. The entry may be drawn in any medium. For display purposes, colorful entries are preferred. Colored pencils, crayons, water color, colored markers, pastels, and cut-out colored paper are acceptable. Entries must not exceed ¼” in thickness.

5. All artwork must be original and pertain to Dr. King’s statement that “Anyone can be great because anyone can serve.” We encourage art work that expresses what Dr. King’s legacy of service means to the artist.

6. A completed, legible entry form must be attached with a paper clip to the entry.

7. The student’s name should be neatly printed on the back side (not front) of the artwork.

8. Entries that do not comply with the contest requirements will be disqualified.

9. Winners will be chosen based on artistic merit and originality. A winner and two finalists will be chosen in each grade category. Winners and finalists will be chosen by a panel of Northwestern University Chicago Campus students and administrators. All decisions are final.

10. All entrants will be invited to attend Northwestern University Chicago Campus Martin Luther King Commemoration on Monday, January 21, 2013 from 12 to 3pm at Thorne Auditorium, Northwestern University School of Law, 375 East Chicago Ave, Chicago, IL 60611. All winners will be awarded cash prizes during the ceremony. Winners will be notified prior to the Ceremony and do not need to be present to accept the awards.

11. Northwestern University Chicago Campus retains ownership of all artwork entered in the Martin Luther King Commemoration Art Contest, and may use the artwork in promotional materials and display it at the Chicago Campus. It will not return entries.
