A Note of Thanks

We are delighted to thank all members of the Nathan Smith Davis Society for their philanthropy and volunteerism in fiscal year 2016 (September 1, 2015–August 31, 2016).

Membership in the Nathan Smith Davis Society at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine is bestowed to individuals who provide critical support for the growth, excellence, and competitiveness of the medical school. This support comes in many forms, including annual gifts that are vital to the daily operation of a world-class medical school, endowments that ensure the strength of our institution in perpetuity, planned gifts that create a lasting legacy for future generations, and volunteer service that helps shape our vibrant medical school community. Through the prestigious Nathan Smith Davis Society, we proudly acknowledge and celebrate the numerous ways you give back.

Six Groups of Supporters

By honoring six distinct groups of supporters, the Nathan Smith Davis Society recognizes the giving and volunteerism of alumni, faculty, friends, and staff members.

Benefactor Society
$1 million or more in cumulative lifetime giving.

Lifetime Giving Society
$35,000 or more in cumulative lifetime giving.

Northwestern University Leadership Circle/Member
$1,000 or more in total annual giving to the medical school. Individuals are also honored through the Northwestern University Leadership Circle and receive all recognition and benefits associated with that University-wide program.

Young Alumni Society
MD alumni who graduated in the last nine years who have made gifts at the following levels.
- 5–9 years: $600 per year or $50/month
- 2–4 years: $240 per year or $20/month
- 0–1 year: $120 per year or $10/month

Henry and Emma Rogers Society
Donors who have notified Northwestern and have documented an estate or deferred gift commitment to benefit the medical school.

Service Society
Members who are actively engaged in volunteer activities such as: advisory and editorial boards, student mentorship, hosting regional events, and alumni-related activities—Board members, reunion participation, and class giving efforts, etc.

The Nathan Smith Davis Society carries the name of one of the founders of our medical school, our first dean, and a pioneer in medical education. Dr. Nathan Smith Davis advocated for higher standards in the training of physicians as well as in the medical profession. He founded the American Medical Association, served as its first president, and was the first editor of the Journal of the American Medical Association. Each year, we host a Nathan Smith Davis Society Reception to thank members of the society, and we publish an annual report that recognizes the name of each generous member.

This report covers contributions to Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine between September 1, 2015 and August 31, 2016. Gifts posted on or after September 1, 2016, will appear in next year’s Honor Roll of Donors. Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of the information presented. Please contact Sarah Kalsbeek in Development & Alumni Relations at s-kalsbeek@northwestern.edu or 312-503-3459 with any questions regarding this report.
Lifetime Benefactor Society

We thank our esteemed members of the Lifetime Benefactor Society for your lifetime, cumulative giving of $1 million or more to the medical school. Your high-impact philanthropy is making a difference each day across our mission areas. Thank you!

“I’ve seen Northwestern in action, first as a student at Kellogg many years ago, and now as a patient. Both the education and the care I’ve received in recent years have been first-rate. Northwestern Medicine is a high-powered place with very impressive people. In the business world, I have worked in that type of environment all of my life—and I like it. Investing in scholarships to train more young intelligent doctors for our country’s needs, or supporting the research of up-and-coming investigators is really the way to go in my mind.”

“Dr. Roguska’s commitment to excellence, her compassion for her patients, and her devoted medical work at Northwestern have helped many medical students—including myself—to accomplish more than we ever imagined. In my gratitude to her, I created this scholarship to extend her legacy for future generations.”

Jadwiga Roguska-Kyts, MD, ’60, ’63 GME
“Education and healthcare are so very important to society as a whole. I am delighted, moved, and humbled by Dr. Barber’s wonderful gift to the medical school. It will help to ensure that young people entering the field of medicine don’t have to go into debt and worry about their financial futures.”

Through our Lifetime Giving Society, the following alumni, faculty, staff, and friends are recognized and honored for their cumulative lifetime giving to the medical school, totaling $35,000–$999,999. Thank you!

Longtime supporters Dr. Kenneth and Mrs. Janine Merkitch recently made a generous gift to the Paul Urnes, MD, Resident Education and Research Fund in the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology.

Kenneth W. Merkitch, ’82 BSM, ’84 MD, ’88 GME
Janine M. Merkitch, ’83 BSPT

“It is a great honor for us to support Northwestern, where we were so lucky to receive fantastic educations that enabled us to have wonderful careers and lives together. Helping the next generation of students means a lot to us. We fully embrace the idea of full-tuition support for every medical student. Giving on an annual basis is one way to ensure we keeping moving in that direction.”

Eric G. Neilson, MD, vice president for Medical Affairs and Lewis Landsberg Dean, delivers an update during Alumni Weekend, April 2016
Young Alumni Society

We acknowledge and thank the following members of our Young Alumni Society. These alumni have completed their MD degrees at Feinberg within the past 10 years and have provided a gift of $120 (0–1 year since earning MD degree), $240 (2–4 years), or $600 (5–9 years) or more to the medical school from September 1, 2015, through August 31, 2016.

A first-year internal medicine resident at Northwestern, Dr. Austin Culver plans to subspecialize in cardiology. One day, he hopes to meld his Northwestern undergraduate training in biomedical engineering with his interest in developing innovations in the treatment of structural heart disease.

Austin Culver, ’16 MD, past recipient of the John Flanagan Scholarship

“Receiving a scholarship allowed me to chart my own medical career path and relieved me of the pressure of having a financial burden dictate my choice of specialty. I now gratefully give back to Feinberg because I have experienced, firsthand, the importance of being a learner at an institution that prioritizes not only medical knowledge and leading-edge research, but also engagement with our local and broader communities to develop successful leaders and physicians equipped to embrace the challenges of 21st century healthcare.”

Margaret Winston, ’52 MD, ’52 GME

In fiscal year 2016, the medical school received an estate gift of over $1 million from Class of 1952 medical alumna Margaret Winston, MD, to support the Galter Health Sciences Library. While her philanthropy was always anonymous in life, Dr. Winston has allowed her generosity to be made public after her death. Dr. Winston passed away in 2014.

“Dr. Winston’s commitment to Northwestern University and her love of books and education shine through in this remarkable gift to Galter Library. We’re honored to include Dr. Winston among our most devoted supporters. This generous gift is a crucial first step to fund the renovation of Galter Library into a next-generation library and learning crossroads.”

—Kristi Holmes, PhD, Director, Galter Health Sciences Library, Associate Professor of Preventive Medicine, Health and Biomedical Informatics Division

Henry and Emma Rogers Society

The Henry and Emma Rogers Society was founded in the summer of 1987 to express Northwestern University’s gratitude to all those who have generously made an estate or planned gift commitment to Northwestern. Today this esteemed donor recognition society has more than 1,800 members University-wide. We thank each of the following alumni, faculty, staff, and friends for their estate or deferred gift intentions to benefit the medical school.
Emily Jing Xi Li, Class of 2019
Recipient of the Susan Anderson Kline, MD, Scholarship, awarded for the first time in the 2015–2016 academic year. Dr. Kline, who passed away in 2015, funded this scholarship in part through her estate.

“By receiving this amazing scholarship, I am able to focus my attention on my medical education and not worry about the financial debt I would have incurred without it.”

Emily Jing Xi Li
Nyambi Ebie, ’71 MD

“Serving as a class representative allows me to constantly feel the pulse of our alma mater and to inform my class members. Reunions are particularly important. Walking the halls where we were molded into our life-long careers and learning about the school’s progress serve as a professional, if not a spiritual, renewal. Reunions also inspire giving back, such as the recent establishment of the ’71 scholar project. An African adage states: ‘Who gives once receives forever.’ Thank you to my class members and family... we gave once and already we have a ’71 class scholarship in perpetuity.”

Thanks to Dr. Ebie’s efforts and his own generosity, gifts to the Class of 1971 scholarship fund totaled more than $50,000 in 2016.

Service Society

We recognize and thank the following Service Society members who are significantly engaged in the medical school through participation in alumni volunteer activities such as class giving efforts, advisory and editorial boards, and other vital activities.
