Learning Objectives
At the conclusion of this activity, participants should be able to:
1. Recognize the role that public health plays in an urban population.
2. Describe the Healthy Chicago Public Health Agenda and the 12 Healthy Chicago priorities. Examples of successful strategy implementation will be discussed.
3. Associate how partnerships and engagement can improve public health. Healthy Chicago priorities will be demonstrated by the amount of partnership building and engagement within many different agencies and community groups.

Disclosure Statements
Dr. Bechara Choucair has nothing to disclose. The course director, Suzanne Cox, PhD MPH, has nothing to disclose. FSM’s CME Leadership & Staff have nothing to disclose: John X. Thomas, Jr., PhD, Sr. Associate Dean for Medical Education; Genevieve Napier, CME Director; CME Project Specialists Ashley Kick and Tara Scavelli.

The Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine designates this live activity for a maximum of 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.