Respondents’ Postgraduate Activities\(^1\):
100% Employed as a PA in clinical practice or hired, awaiting start date

Area of Specialty

- Occupational Medicine: 4%
- Orthopedics: 14%
- Surgery (General): 11%
- Surgery (Specialty): 29%
- Internal Medicine (Hospitalist): 7%
- Internal Medicine (General): 7%
- Family Medicine: 4%
- Emergency Medicine: 3%
- Dermatology: 3%

States of Employment

- 67% (4%)
- 4% (4%)
- 7% (4%)
- 4% (4%)
- 4% (4%)

Employment Setting

- Hospital, 56%
- Outpatient (non-Hospital), 33%
- Private Practice, 11%

---

NU PA Program Graduate Salaries (Entry-Level)\(^2\):
- Average: $85,188
- Median: $83,000
- Mode: $80,000
- Range: $69,000 - $130,000

Survey Response Rate: 97%, or 28 of 29 May 2014 graduates; survey conducted in January 2015.

Salary data does not include May 2014 graduates pursuing or on post-graduate residency.

---

Projected Job Openings (2012-2022): 120,000

Projected Growth: (2012-2022): 38%
(Much faster than average)

Job Outlook:
As more physicians enter specialty areas of medicine, there will be a greater need for providers, such as PAs.

---

Salary Information: (2012)
- 10th Percentile: $62,430
- 50th Percentile: $90,930
- 90th Percentile: $124,770

Salary information includes PAs at all levels and is not exclusive to entry-level.