Respondents’ Postgraduate Activities¹:
95% Employed as a PA in clinical practice or hired, awaiting start date

Area of Specialty

- Internal Medicine (5%)
- Occupational Medicine (5%)
- Pain Management (11%)
- Pediatrics (5%)
- Orthopedics (5%)
- Family Medicine (5%)
- Surgery (16%)
- Dermatology (11%)
- Emergency Medicine (21%)
- Urgent Care (16%)

States of Employment

States:
- California: 61%
- Texas: 6%
- Florida: 6%
- New York: 11%
- Other states: 6%

Employment Setting

- Private Practice: 13%
- Outpatient (non-hospital): 13%
- Hospital: 6%

Survey Response Rate: 75%, or 21 of 28 graduates
Survey conducted in February 2014 for May 2013 graduates

1. NU PA Program Graduate Salaries (Entry-Level):¹
- Average: $89,033
- Median: $83,000
- Mode: $90,000
- Range: $65,000 - $155,000

Salary Information: (2012)
- 10th Percentile: $62,430
- 50th Percentile: $90,930
- 90th Percentile: $124,770

Salary information includes PAs at all levels and is not exclusive to entry-level.

Projected Growth: (2012-2022): 38%
(Much faster than average)

Job Outlook:
As more physicians enter specialty areas of medicine, there will be a greater need for providers, such as PAs.

Projected Job Openings (2012-2022): 120,000