

NU PA Program Graduate Salaries (Entry-Level)²:

- Average: $95,000.83
- Median: $90,000.00
- Range: $70,000 - $164,020

Bureau of Labor Statistics Outlook (May 2014)³

Salary Information: (2014)

- 10th Percentile: $64,100
- Median: $95,820
- 90th Percentile: $134,720

Salary information includes PAs at all levels and is not exclusive to entry-level.

Projected Growth:

(2014-2024): 30%
 (Much faster than average)

Job Outlook:

As more physicians enter specialty areas of medicine, there will be a greater need for providers, such as PAs.

Projected Employment

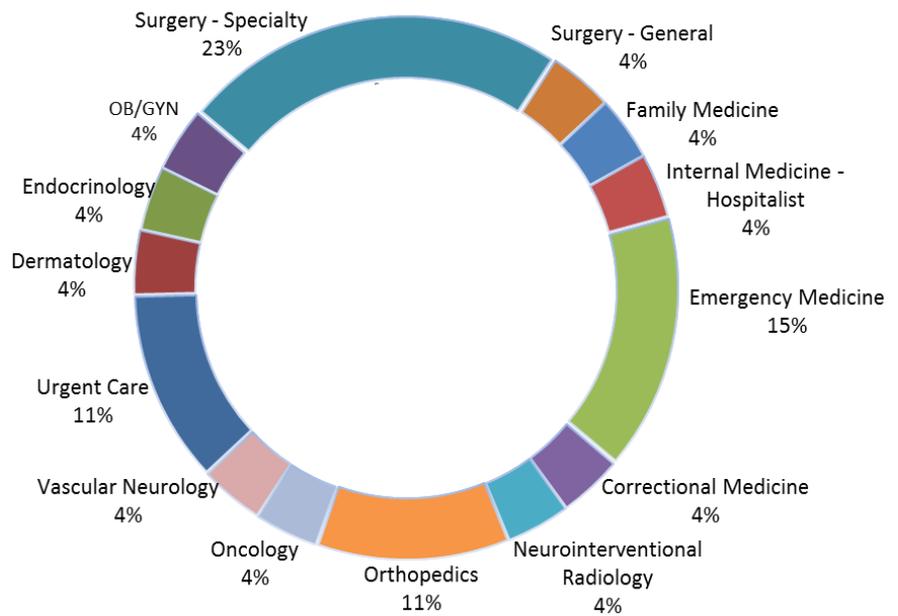

(2014-2024): 123,200

³BLS, U.S. Dept of Labor, Occupational Outlook Handbook, 2016-17 Ed. (obtained Feb. 2016).

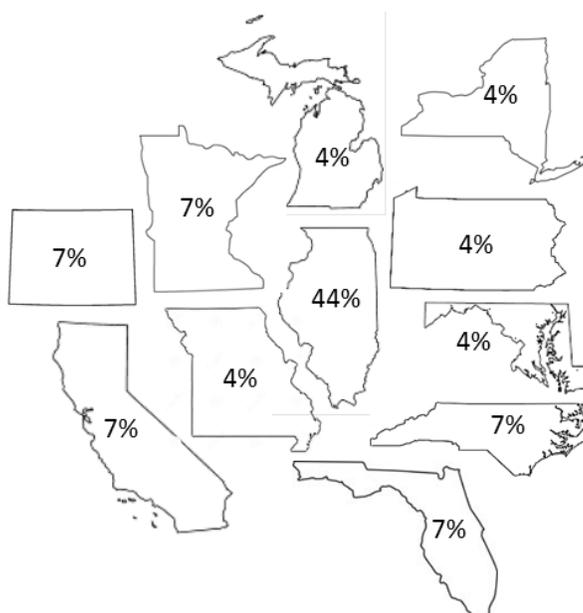

Respondents' Postgraduate Activities¹:

96% Employed as a PA in clinical practice or hired, awaiting start date

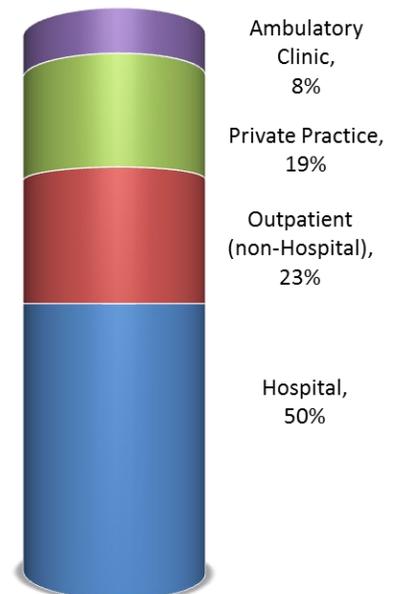

Area of Specialty

States of Employment

Employment Setting

¹ Survey Response Rate: 93%, or 27 of 29 May 2015 graduates; survey conducted in February 2016.

² Salary data does not include May 2015 graduates pursuing or on post-graduate residency.