Job Opportunity: Staff Physical Therapist at Purdue University. 9 month position

Purdue University Student Health (PUSH) – Physical Therapy

The Physical Therapy Department at Purdue University has a unique position to work in a college setting with young active people. We provide out-patient physical therapy to Purdue students, with the large majority of the patient load being orthopedic injuries.

This job also has many opportunities for interaction/teaching with Athletic Training, Physical Therapy, and pre-PT students. These opportunities include clinical education, in class instruction, and laboratory assistance. There are also opportunities with collegiate athletics at the Varsity, Club, and Intramural levels.

The position is an academic year position working from Mid August – Mid May with all university holidays off including fall break, winter break, and spring break.
