Is this a computer managed by Feinberg IT?

YES → Do nothing.

You do not need to download BigFix onto your work machine. Feinberg IT will install BigFix on all managed computers.

NO ↓

Is this a computer managed by Northwestern Memorial HealthCare

Ann & Robert H. Lurie Children's Hospital of Chicago or Rehabilitation Institute of Chicago?

YES →

Your machine already has appropriate security, and you do not need to download BigFix. Be sure to autoforward/redirect your Northwestern University email to your clinical email account (e.g. nm.org, ric.org, or luriechildrens.org) or use Outlook webmail.

NO ↓

Is this a mobile device, phone or tablet that downloads email?

YES →

Feinberg IT will implement security changes that may require you to update or set a passcode on your device.

NO ↓

Is this a computer or laptop used to check email using Outlook webmail?

YES → Do nothing.

You do not need to download BigFix unless you store files related to University business on this computer.

NO ↓

Is this a personal computer or laptop NOT managed by Feinberg IT and used to check email using an email client such as Outlook desktop or Apple Mail, or something similar?

YES →

NO ↓

Is this a computer or laptop NOT managed by Feinberg IT and used to store files related to University business (like a home computer)?

YES →

You will need to download BigFix

BigFix is a software package that Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine is using to protect our academic community's ecosystem of devices from security lapses, ensure a standard for IT security, and confirm compliance with University and Feinberg policies.

For more information feinberg.northwestern.edu/it/big-fix

Northwestern Medicine®
Feinberg School of Medicine