

MEDICAL STUDENT POLICY

Title: IT and Computer User Policies
Relevant LCME Element(s): 5.9: Information Technology Resources/Staff

I. POLICY AND PROCEDURE STATEMENT

Feinberg students must abide by both Northwestern and Feinberg information technology (IT) policies. Feinberg students review and attest to these policies at student orientation and again before clinical clerkships begin.

Northwestern University IT Policies

The use of technology within Northwestern University is governed by the policies of Northwestern University Information Technology. The complete listing of these policies can be found at <http://www.it.northwestern.edu/policies/index.html>. The rights and responsibilities for the use of network and computing resources at Northwestern University are summarized at <https://www.it.northwestern.edu/about/policies/appropriate-use-of-electronic-resources.html>. Additional guidelines are available in the Northwestern University Student Handbook.
