

CHICAGO CAMPUS COMMUTING OPTIONS

The City of Chicago is home to two major transportation systems, Chicago Transit Authority and Metra Chicago. Both operate all day and are very reliable. The Feinberg School of Medicine is easily accessible by bus and rail transportation routes.

Below is a list of alternative transportation services that Northwestern currently provides.

Walking

Chicago Campus Map

Public Transit Services to Chicago Campus

Feinberg Participation in the CTA Ventra U-Pass Program

CTA Trip Planner

➤ Routes near campus

CTA Red Line (“L”) Subway System closest to campus– Chicago/State stop

CTA Bus Routes closest to campus - 3, 66, 144, 146, 147, 151, 157

Metra Train & Bus Service also see NU train station shuttles

NU Shuttle Bus Service

Intercampus Shuttle – runs between Evanston and Chicago Campuses

NU Train Station Shuttles – runs between Ogilvie, Union, Millennium & LaSalle Street Metra train stations

Chicago Campus Parking

Please visit: <https://www.northwestern.edu/transportation-parking/chicago-parking/index.html>

Bike to Campus

Northwestern University provides discounted Divvy annual memberships for students. There are also bike repair stations and free shower facilities.