Project: Precision Medicine study called focused on heart health among African Americans

Academic Team: Dr. Minoli Perera & Dr. Doriane Miller, U of C, et al

Department: Pharmacology

Outcome: Feedback on pilot grant program, recommendations related to simplifying grant announcement language and outreach strategies

Stakeholder Panel:

- Civic Engagement representative from U of C
- Health communication specialist
- Representatives from community-based organization focused on research
- Local foundation representative, expert in community partnerships
- Lurie Comprehensive Cancer Center representative
- Northwestern community academic liaison
- Representative of faith and research organization
- U of C Community Affairs Office representative