

Early Peanut Recommendation – Clinician Work Flow

Assess Peanut Allergy Risk:
4–, 6–Mo WCC

Severe Eczema*
and/or Egg Allergy

*Look for deep/bright red erythema, marked induration/papulation, and/or lichenification.

Order
Peanut sIgE
(Use order set)

≥ 0.35 kUA/L

Refer to Allergy/Immunology

< 0.35 kUA/L

Recommend Peanut Introduction

Around 4–6 months old when ready for solids.
2g per feeding, 3 times per week.

Follow-Up:
6–,9–,12– Mo WCC

Already Assessed Risk and Provided Guidance?

Yes

Peanut Introduced or In Diet?

Yes

Reminder
2g per feeding,
3 times per week

No

Assess Risk AND/OR Provide Guidance
(See flowchart above)